Mrs. Cathy Postma submitted to a pacemaker surgery this week and is now recovering at home. May the Lord heal and restore her health.

Please continue to pray for strength and growth for Miss Nora Jones and Miss Carina-Mae Hamink. Pray for strength and growth for these precious little girls and encouragement and energy for their families.

Ms. Rita Gray is thankful to be home from the hospital. It was determined to be a medication issue and she is beginning to feel better. Continue to pray for strength and a complete recovery.

Miss Najia Flowers has now tested positive for COVID 19 but is experiencing few symptoms. Shanda, Nai and Raji have now moved back to their home - pray for strength for this family as they continue to heal. If you would like to take/send a meal, please visit: www.TakeThemAMeal.com/LXQU6898 Please continue to honor their request that none of this is put on social media.

Mrs. Emily Veenstra-Banning has been very sick this week with two trips to the emergency room. Please pray for relief, a diagnosis and answers to what is going on, and for recovery.

Let us remember all our sick and afflicted before the throne of grace.

The prayer team members are available to pray with you by telephone. Contact: Mrs. D. Plantenga (616-421-5874), Mrs. E. Riekena (616-204-0918), Mrs. K. Ver Beek* (616-947-4198), Mrs. J. DeYoung (616-818-8512), Mrs. J. Stout (616-206-4860), Mr. C. DeVries (616-245-3863).

We are glad to insert the following from the esteemed Christian Reformed Church of North America. The CRC Office of Social Justice calls for Immigration Stories! Our time at home is a great opportunity to share family stories. Is immigration a part of your family's story? Where did your ancestors come from and when? Join the CRC Office of Social Justice in dusting off these stories and contribute to the "Immigration Is Our Story" series. Visit justice.crcna.org for more info.

Faith Formation Ministries offers the following information for families: Picture a kite soaring high in a summer sky. Even though we know scientifically how kites fly, there is still something magical, mysterious, beautiful, and special about the sight of a kite battling back and forth on an invisible breeze, tail twirling in the wind. Talk about how the disciples must have felt seeing Jesus rise to heaven. What emotions would they have felt (nervous, sad, excited, inspired?) (crcna.org/FaithFormation).

We also gladly give place to the following announcement from Calvin University. How should Christians respond to the new questions facing our world and have have the courage to make a positive change? Calvin University is offering 3-week collaborative online classes for all who wish to learn (fee required). Examples include: Faithful Anti-racism in a Time of Pandemic, Religion, Behavior, and Public Health, and Crisis Communication Practices. Enroll at: <https://bit.ly/36aekxK>

We will be pleased to recognize our recent graduates from middle school, high school, and college on May 31. Please contact Mrs. B. Emmelkamp by May 24 with the name of the school, level completed, and degree awarded.

The Christian Education Committee will be collecting soda bottles and metal cans in June. Should you have any in your home, please retain them for this purpose.

If you should wish to join in a time of prayer and intercession, please dial 701-802-5015 and enter access code 234826#. Please announce yourself when connected. Contact Mrs. D. Plantenga 616-421-5874 with any questions.

It is requested that you continue to lift our missionaries and their needs to the Lord: Rev. & Mrs. J. Lee, Miss Jenny LeMahieu, Mr. & Mrs. K. Van Weerdhuizen, and Mr. & Mrs. M. VanAndel.

The congregation of Oakdale Park Christian Reformed Church is celebrating God's faithfulness through 130 years of ministry in the Oakdale neighborhood (May 22, 1890). The bulletin format and wording style are based on an original bulletin from 1929. The language translation included in the 2020 version is Kinyarwanda (vs. Dutch in the 1929 version). Enjoy!
